CALABRIA ARRIVES

CRUISER OF KING EMANUEL'S FLEET HERE TO STAY TEN DAYS.

After a nine day trip from San Francisco, steaming at the rate of but nine knots an hour, the Italian cruiser Calabria entered port this morning early although she arrived off short last night. The weather during the voyage was variable, but nevertheless pleasant. Captain Mario Casanuova is in command of the cruiser and is a veteran in the service of Victor Emanuel.

The Calabria will remain in this port for about ten days which will be spent in coaling up for her trip to Oriental ports.

Upon docking at the Naval Wharf, Captain Casanuova immediately repaired to the U. S. Naval Station to call upon Admiral Rees and afterward proceeded with the Italian Consul to pay his respects to the Acting Governor. Later on, at about 10:30 the ranking officer of the American naval forces returned the official call. The cannonade which has been booming during the early part of today is in fact a triple salute. First to the American flag, secondly to the Japanese cruiser Izumo, and thirdly in honor of the anniversary of the birthday of ex-Queen Margherita, wife of Humbert 1st, and mother of the present king, Victor Emmanuel III. Bunting adorned not only the Italian man-of-war but also that of the Japanese ship.

The Calabria is a vessel of the old class and is used more for cruising around the Italian island possessions than for anything else. She was the most adjacent ship to San Francisco when that city called for floating representatives of the world to attend the Portola Festival last month. The officers and men state that they had the time of their lives in the city of the Golden Gate and regret that their stay was but a month.

Their armament consists of four 152-millimeter guns; six 120-millimeter guns, and sixteen 57-millimeter small and rapid fire machines.

SHRINERS IN LINE

Thousands have this afternoon turned out to watch for the Shriner's parade, threatened to percolate certain important streets of the city, with stunts here and there calculated to delight the heart of the sight-seer.

The magnificent oriental costumes of the handsome worshippers at the shrine, and the woe-begone expression of the victims for initiation will present a scene of entertainment, in fact, are even now calling forth cheers and antics of appreciation from the small boys, big boys, and girls both big and little.

Tonight there's a banquet, and that's another story, but the sight of the century in matters locally mystic is certainly this afternoon's noble procession of gilded images of distinction ornamenting and moving-picturing through the city thoroughfares.

The lighthouse tender Kukui which left on Wednesday night for Eleese, arrived back this morning at six o'clock. The trip to the Garden Island was made for the purpose of allowing Major Winslow to make a tour of inspection. His report of the voyage and the conditions of the lights and buoys are more than satisfactory, which speaks well for the efficiency of the lighthouse service administration.

NEW NURSES FOR HOSPITAL

There arrived by the S. S. Marama last week Miss Agnes E. Maynard of New York and Miss Mary R. Brown of Dayton, Ohio, both of whom have come to accept position with the Palama General Hospital. Miss Maynard will fill the position of head nurse in place of Miss Dewar, who recently resigned to accept a position at the Children's hospital. Miss Maynard was a student at Walnut Hill Academy and entered Wellesley College in the class of 1905, spending two years at that college. She received her nurse's training at the Presbyterian hospital, New York, and holds diplomas from that institution, the Sloane Maternity, and the Mintern Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria hospital. She is also a member of the New York State Branch of the Red Cross, and holds the New York state degree of R. N. Besides having had considerable experience in private practice, she spent several months in district nursing in New York city, and during the summer was in the floating hospital of the St. John's Guild, New York harbor. With her training and experience she should prove a valuable and efficient head nurse to the hospital.

Miss M. R. Brown comes from Dayton, Ohio, and was two years at Mt. Morris College, Mt. Morris, Ill. She is a graduate of the Miami Valley hospital of Dayton, Ohio, and has had considerable experience in private practice and institutional work. She was recently head nurse in the operating room of the Bay View hospital, Baltimore, Md. Palama hospital is fortunate in securing two such well trained and experienced nurses who will, no doubt, help to build up the hospital and add very materially to its efficiency.

The Asia sailed for the mainland at 8 a. m. this morning with through passengers and but two bookings from Honolulu, they being Mr. H. A. De Souza, a Manila cigar man who was a stop-over here; and a Mr. Prune, a traveling representative of some eastern firm.

The Pacific Mail liner China is expected to arrive here early next Tuesday morning from the mainland. She has a large list of passengers for this port as well as a big number of mail sacks. The next ship from the Orient to the coast is the Mongolia which is due on December 3rd. Many folks now resident in Honolulu who have friends in the "Far East" always welcome the arrival of a vessel for the Philippine, Chinese, and Japanese ports. There's a reason: "It's mail" from the old timers and friends who are exiles in the East.
